DATA PROTECTION DECLARATION

Last update: June 2024

Provision of information pursuant to Art 13 of the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679/EU ("GDPR") regarding the processing of personal data in the context of visiting and using the website <https://monetec.io/> ("Website") as well as in the context of interacting with our social media and third-party platform presences outlined under point 9.

Thank you for your interest in our Website. The protection of your privacy is of high priority to us. Consequently, we only process your personal data on the basis of legal requirements set by the GDPR in conjunction with the Austrian Data Protection Act (Datenschutzgesetz) as well as other relevant legal provisions.

In general, you are not obligated to provide data due to statutory or contractual requirements. Data processed automatically when accessing the Website are either not personal data or are stored only for short periods (cf. point 6.1). However, if you decide to contact us via the contact options presented on the Website respectively in the course of this Data Protection Declaration, you have to provide us certain of your data being necessary for the processing of your respective request (cf. point 6.2). Furthermore, in cases where you wish to make use of further services offered via our Website (cf. point 6.3), you have to provide us any data deemed necessary for contract conclusion and execution in the respective case. Should you refuse disclosure of your relevant data for the respective purpose, we may not be able to process your request or render our services to you. The individual processing activities in the context of accessing and using our Website are highlighted in detail under point 6.

1. Definitions

Data protection laws are generally relevant in case any processing of personal data is concerned. The terms used within the scope of this Data Protection Declaration are defined in and by the GDPR. As such, the broad definition of processing (Art 4 item 2 GDPR) of personal data means any operation or set of operations performed on personal data. Any information allowing us or third parties to potentially identify you in person can be considered your personal data, which makes you a data subject (Art 4 item 1 GDPR) within this context.

The following terms are particularly relevant for a better understanding of this Data Protection Declaration:

| Term                     | Definition  | Regulation                       |
|--------------------------|---|----------------------------------|
| Controller        | Natural or legal person or other body which has decisive influence on the processing of personal and is therefore subject to data protection obligations. | Art 4 item 7 GDPRArt 24 GDPR |
| Joint Controllers | Controllers, which process personal data in common interest and have each at least partly a decisive influence on decisions made in this regard.          | Art 26 GDPR                      |
| Processor         | External service provider which processes personal data on behalf of the controller and is contractually bound to its instructions. The                   | Art 4 item 8 GDPRArt 28 GDPR |

|------------------------------------|---|-------------------|
|                                    | processor thereby acts as a kind of extended arm of the controller.   |                   |
| Recipient                   | Generally, every natural or legal person or other body outside of the organisation of the controller to which data being subject to the controller's responsibility are disclosed.  | Art 4 item 9 GDPR |
| Legal basis                 | Condition determined by law that constitutes an authorisation to lawfully process personal data.  | Art 6 para 1 GDPR |
| Transfer to third countries | Transfer of personal data to countries outside of the EU respectively EEA through which they are detracted from the sole control of the GDPR due to stronger ties to the legal system of such third country. This might take place where data are disclosed to a recipient that (i) has its seat/residency in such third country or (ii) maintains a server there on which personal data are processed. | Chapter V GDPR    |
| Adequacy decision           | A resolution of the European Commission through which the adequacy of the data protection level in a third country is acknowledged, and consequently a transfer of data is possible without further restrictions.   | Art 45 GDPR       |
| Appropriate safeguards      | Various instruments which allow the transfer of personal data into a third country for which an adequacy decision does not exist.As far as third-country transfers by us are based on appropriate safeguards, you may request a copy thereof by contacting us under the contact options as outlined subsequently.  | Art 46 GDPR       |

2. Information on the controller and contact details

3. Links to third-party sites

On our Website and in this Data Protection Declaration, we may use links to websites of third parties (e.g., to our presences in social media or relevant sites regarding our service offerings). If you click on one of these links, you will be forwarded to the respective website. For the operators of these websites, it is only evident that you have accessed our Website beforehand. However, please be aware that accessing third-party sites results in additional processing of your data in the sphere of the respective third party! Accordingly, we refer you, in general, to the separate data protection declarations of these websites. For further information on our processing of your data in connection with our social media or third-party platform presences, please review point 9.

4. Rights of the data subject

You may decide to exercise any of the following rights concerning our processing of your personal data at any time free of charge by means of a notification being sent to one of the contact options outlined under point 2; we shall then answer your request as soon as possible and within one (1) month at the latest (in exceptional cases, restrictions on these rights are possible, for instance, if otherwise the rights of third parties would be affected):

- access to and further information concerning your individual data processed by us (right of access, Art 15 GDPR);
- rectification of wrongly recorded data or data that have become inaccurate or incomplete (right to rectification, Art 16 GDPR);
- erasure of data which (i) are not necessary in light of the purpose of data processing, (ii) are processed unlawfully, (iii) must be erased due to a legal obligation or an objection to the processing (right to erasure, Art 17 GDPR);
- temporary restriction of processing under certain circumstances (right to restriction of processing, Art 18 GDPR);
- objection to any processing of your data being based on our legitimate interest (for definitions see point 6) on grounds relating to your particular situation or being executed for direct marketing purposes (right to object; Art 21 para 1 and 2 GDPR);
- transfer of your personal data which are processed for the performance of a contract or on the basis of your consent in a machine-readable format to you or directly to another controller upon request (right to data portability; Art 20 GDPR);
- right to lodge a complaint with a national supervisory authority in respect of our processing of your data (Art 77 GDPR).

5. Transfer of your data; recipients; transfer mechanism re international transfers

For the purposes executing the data processing activities as indicated in the course of this Data Protection Declaration, we may transfer your personal data to the following recipients or make them available to them:

- MINDSTONE IT – Oliver Steiner [Bad Mergentheim, Germany] (as our hosting and email delivery provider – cf. points 6.1, 6.3);
- bank institutions/credit card companies (in respect of payments pursuant to point 6.3);
- Google Ireland Limited [Dublin, Ireland] (as provider of services embedded into our Website – cf. point 8.3.1).

Furthermore, we are joint controllers in the sense of Art 26 GDPR with the service providers described under point 9 when accessing and interacting with our respective social media or platform presences.

Some of the mentioned recipients are respectively their server landscape is located outside of the EU/EEA, or they use (further) processors to render their services to which this applies. Possible transfers of your data within this context into the legal sphere of such third parties are based on the following transfer mechanisms:

- Google LLC [CA, US] as relevant group company of Google Ireland Limited – respective company's certification according to the "EU-US Data Privacy Framework" pursuant to the adequacy decision of the EU Commission in the sense of Art 45 GDPR concerning the US (cf.: <https://www.dataprivacyframework.gov/list>).

6. Data processing operations

In the subsequent section, data processing operations that may occur when accessing or using our Website are described in detail. Within this context, we provide you with information on the essential elements of each data processing operation, namely (a) type and extent (when and how), (b) purpose (why) as well as (c) the storage period of your data (how long).

Moreover, we inform you about the legal basis which we use to justify the respective data processing operation as required by the GDPR. The following chart provides you with a first overview of possible legal bases, which we use in this regard:

| Legal basis                      | Definition  | Regulation              |
|----------------------------------|---|-------------------------|
| Performance of a contract | The processing of your data is necessary for the performance of a contract concluded with you or to take steps prior to entering into a contract with you at your request.  | Art 6 para 1 lit b GDPR |
| Legal obligation          | The processing of your data is necessary to comply with a legal obligation we are subject to.   | Art 6 para 1 lit c GDPR |
| Legitimate interests      | The processing of your data is (i) necessary for the purposes of legitimate interests pursued by us or a third party and (ii) we have considered your conflicting interests and fundamental rights and freedoms accordingly. (For the right to object to interest-based processing due to your particular situation, see point 4.) | Art 6 para 1 lit f GDPR |

6.1 Processing of traffic data; server log files

- (a) Type and extent of data processing: You can visit our Website without providing any personal information. However, out of technical necessity, so-called "traffic data" are processed automatically when a website is accessed.

Within this context, in particular, the following categories of traffic data can be transferred to the server that is requested to provide a respective website or file:

- (i) implicit access data (automatic, inevitable and unsolicited transmission): IP address used, user agent (browser type/version used), accessed site (URL), previously visited website (referrer URL), time of the access request, language settings.
- (ii) explicit access data (transmission where provided for in the source code of the respective service): screen resolution, colour depth, time zone, touchscreen support, browser plugins.

Traffic data will be stored by us in so-called "server log files". Hosting provider of our Website is Mindstone IT (cf. point 5).

Traffic data may also be transferred to providers of third-party services embedded into our Website (cf. point 8.).

- (b) Legal basis and purpose: The purpose of this data processing operation is to establish and maintain technical security with regards to our Website. The processing is based on our legitimate interest (Art 6 para 1 lit f GDPR; for the "right to object", see point 4) in achieving the mentioned purpose.
- (c) Storage period: Server log files are stored as long as they are necessary for the abovementioned purpose and subsequently erased.

6.2 Contacting; contact form

- (a) Type and extent of data processing: When contacting us via the contact form provided on our Website, we will use your data as indicated in order to process your contact request and deal with it. The data processing involved is necessary to issue a response in respect of your request. Moreover, the respective elucidations of this point apply accordingly to the processing of data being entailed by direct contact requests executed via contact details provided on our Website, without making use of the contact form.
- (b) Legal basis and purpose: Purpose of the data processing is to enable us an exchange with users of the Website respectively our customers. We answer your request on the basis of our legitimate interest (Art 6 para 1 lit f GDPR; for the "right to object" see point 4) in maintaining a properly functioning contact system, which is a prerequisite for the provision of any services. As far as your request is based on an existing contractual relationship with us or you are interested in establishing said contractual relationship, the processing is based on the performance of the corresponding contract, or on taking steps prior to entering into a contract with you at your request (Art 6 para 1 lit b GDPR).
- (c) Storage period: We delete your requests as well as your contact data if the request has been answered conclusively if the data must not be further processed for different purposes (e.g., for the fulfilment of legal documentation obligations according to point 6.4).

6.3 Services offered via the Website; customer account; customer identification process

- (a) Type and extent of data processing: Our Website is designed to tailor our entrepreneurial service offerings to your needs. Should you decide to use the services we offer (i.e., acquisition of tokenized participation rights), we will need to process certain data from you that are necessary for contract execution and performance – this requires the creation of a customer account in order to access the dashboard and functions connected with the provision of our services, as well as going through the customer identification process in order to establish your unique identity.

Payments in regards to purchases via the Website can be made via EUR, using bank transfer, or via USDT, using a wallet service to transfer the respective amount. When paying via bank transfer, we solely receive regular transaction information provided by the respective bank institute/credit card company; when paying via USDT, we receive your public wallet address that particularly allows us to determine which tokens you own.

- (b) Legal basis and purpose: Processing of your data within the context of our service range serves the purpose that we can pursue our business activity and provide our services accordingly; it is necessary for the performance of the respective contract concluded with you respectively to take steps at your request prior to entering into a contract (Art 6 para 1 lit b GDPR).

The specific customer identification process and related data processing serves the purpose of preventing abuse and fraud, mitigating risks involved in respect of rendering our services and facilitating implementation of and compliance with various business requirements on the basis of our respective legitimate interest pursuant to Art 6 para 1 lit f GDPR (for the "right to object", see point 4).

- (c) Storage period: We will store your data and maintain your customer account for the duration of the respective customer relationship (or until we receive a legitimate erasure request – cf. point 4) and subsequently erase your data if they must not be further processed for different purposes (e.g., for the fulfilment of legal documentation obligations according to point 6.4).

6.4 Legal retention and documentation periods

- (a) Type and extent of data processing: In general, we do not store your data for longer than absolutely necessary. However in some cases, we are subject to legal obligations that do not allow us to erase your data immediately. This concerns, in particular, accounting and business-related data, which have to be stored by us due to retention and documentation periods set by relevant fiscal and commercial law.
- (b) Legal basis and purpose: We process your data in this context on the basis of Art 6 para 1 lit c GDPR (legal obligation). This processing of your data is conducted for the purpose of complying with our own statutory duties.
- (c) Storage period: Due to legal retention and documentation obligations, which are arising under fiscal and commercial law, your data are generally stored for a period of seven (7) years. In case the data in question are relevant for a pending (tax) proceeding, they might be stored for longer periods. As a result of other legal requirements, storage periods may deviate for certain data.

6.5 Functional third-party implementations

- (a) Type and extent of data processing: Due to third-party software/services which used in the context of our Website, additional data processing activities may be initiated for different purposes. The specific services and their functionality are briefly described under point 8.2; further information can be found in detailed descriptions under point 8.3.
- (a) Legal basis and purpose: Within the framework of the respective service, we use collected data in order to improve our services or make them more attractive or secure. The relevant legal basis is stated in the description of the respective service.
- (b) Storage period: We store generated data in accordance with the requirements and possibilities stipulated by the relevant service for as long as it is necessary to fulfil the respective processing purpose.

7. Cookies

On our Website, we use so-called "cookies" to the technically necessary extent, thus as far as essential for the proper functioning of our Website (see below). Where such cookies store personal data, we utilize them on the basis of our accompanying legitimate interest (Art 6 para 1 lit f GDPR; for the "right to object", see point 4).

Cookies are small data sets that are stored on your end device by your respective browser. They are placed by a web server and sent back to it as soon as a new connection is established in order to recognise the user and his settings. In this sense a cookie assigns a specific identity consisting of numbers and letters to your end device.

Cookies can fulfil different purposes, e.g., helping to maintain the functionality of websites with regard to state of the art functions and user experience. The actual content of a specific cookie is always determined by the website that created it.

Cookies always contain the following information:

- name of the cookie;
- name of the server the cookie originates from;
- ID number of the cookie;
- an end date at the end of which the cookie is automatically deleted.

Cookies can be differentiated according to type and purpose as follows:

- Necessary cookies: Technically necessary (also: essential) cookies are required for the proper functioning of websites by enabling basic functions, such as site navigation and access to protected areas. Without such cookies, a website regularly fails to be fully functional. Necessary cookies are always first-party cookies. They can only be deactivated in the settings of your browser by rejecting all cookies without exception (see below).
- Other types of cookies: Cookies not being technically necessary in the described manner, which are currently not utilized in respect of our Website, can serve different purposes and be classified accordingly (e.g., "analytics cookies" to analyse user behaviour and create statistics, "marketing cookies" to track users across websites to display personalised advertisements, "plugin cookies" used in the course of embedding third-party services into a website).

With regard to the storage period cookies can be further differentiated as follows:

- Session cookies: Such cookies will be deleted without any action on your part as soon as you close your current browser session.
- Persistent cookies: Such cookies (e.g., to save your language settings) remain stored on your end device until a previously defined expiration date or until you have them manually removed.

Furthermore, cookies may be differentiated by their subject of attribution:

- First-party cookies: Such cookies are used by ourselves and placed directly from our Website. Browsers generally do not make them accessible across domains which is why the user can only be recognised by the page from which the cookie originates.
- Third-party cookies: Such cookies are not placed by the website operator itself, but by third parties when visiting a specific website, in particular, for advertising purposes (e.g., to track surfing behaviour). They allow, for example, to evaluate different page views as well as their frequency.

Namely, we use the following cookies in the course of our Website:

| Name               | Service          | Purpose  | Nature and duration of storage  |
|--------------------|------------------|--|---|
| _csrf              | Website operator | Protection against Cross-Site Request Forgery (CSRF), helps to ensure secure requests from the Website by generating random tokens | Necessary first-party session cookie, which will remain on your end device for the duration of the respective session |
| advanced-frontend  | Website operator | Management of session information for advanced frontend functionalities  | Necessary first-party session cookie, which will remain on your end device for the duration of the respective session |
| _identity-frontend | Website operator | Used for user authentication, especially to identify logged-in users across multiple page requests                                 | Necessary first-party cookie, which will remain on your end device for the duration of 1 day                          |

Most browsers automatically accept cookies. However, you have the option to customise your browser settings so that cookies are either generally declined or only allowed in certain ways (e.g., limiting refusal to third-party cookies). Please be aware that if you change your browser's cookie settings, our Website may no longer be fully usable. Via the browser settings, you also have the option to delete the entirety of cookies already stored on your end device.

8. Third-party services embedded into our Website

8.1 General explanations

Purpose of processing: In order to make our Website more secure, optimise it for its intended purposes, provide necessary or useful functions in regards to an economically viable pursuit of our business activity as well as to make available services to users that are usually expected in our line of business, we utilise a variety of services on our Website which are rendered by third-party service providers and subsequently described below.

Necessary processing: From a purely technical perspective, certain traffic data are transferred when visiting any website, and may be transferred to implemented services as well (cf. point 6.1). Any such transmission of traffic data that is technically necessary is based on our legitimate interest (Art 6 para 1 lit f GDPR) in integrating the respective services with adequate effort into our Website

(for the "right to object", see point 4). Any further use of traffic data within this context is grounded on a separate legal basis pursuant to the specific information provided below.

8.2 Overview and brief summary

Subsequently, you can find a brief summary of services used as well as accompanying basic legal information.

If you press on the name of one of the services, you will be transferred to the data protection declaration of the respective service provider. Please be aware that accessing third-party sites results in additional processing of your data in the sphere of the respective third party (cf. point 3).

For further information of the respective recipients of your data within that context, please cf. point 5.

| Service                      | Processing operation       | Purpose   | Legal basis                                   |
|------------------------------|----------------------------|---|---|
| Google Fonts | Processing of traffic data | Embedding digital fonts into the Website to improve user experience | Legitimate Interest (Art 6 para 1 lit f GDPR) |
| Google CDN   | Processing of traffic data | Improve performance, speed and availability of our Website          | Legitimate Interest (Art 6 para 1 lit f GDPR) |

8.3 Individual third-party services (Google)

The following services are provided to us by Google Ireland Limited [Dublin, Ireland] ("Google Ireland").

For further information on data usage by Google Ireland and affiliated companies as well as your options in terms of settings and objection, please review point 5 as well as the respective privacy policy of the Google group under <https://policies.google.com/privacy?hl=en>.

8.3.1 Google Fonts

On our Website, we use digital fonts, namely "Google Fonts", as they are optimised for websites and allow us to save bandwidth. This leads to reduced loading times for the Website (using Google's respective CDN [cf. point 8.3.2]) as well as to a uniform appearance on all common browsers and end devices. Due to our use of Google Fonts, your traffic data (cf. point 6.1) will be transferred to Google servers when accessing the Website.

Utilisation of Google Fonts is based on our legitimate interest in realising an appealing and uniform web appearance (Art 6 para 1 lit f GDPR; for the right to object, see point 4). Data processing follows the purpose of making our Website more appealing to potential users. Google Ireland acts as independent controller of any transferred data in this regard, using them for analysis purposes.

More information on Google Fonts specifically can be found at <https://developers.google.com/fonts/faq>.

8.3.2 Google Content Delivery Networks

On our Website, we use so-called Content Delivery Networks ("CDN") provided by Google Ireland. A CDN operates by duplicating elements of websites and storing them on servers distributed across various locations, or by loading specific types of content, such as images or other media (storing and distributing only the designated content types). This distribution minimizes the risk of server overload by spreading the load across multiple points. Additionally, CDN enhance website accessibility speed by serving content from the closest and fastest server to each user's location. This architecture ensures efficient delivery of website content, optimizing the user experience.

Due to our use of CDN, your traffic data (cf. point 6.1) will be transferred to servers of Google Ireland. We use CDN on the basis of our legitimate interest (Art 6 para 1 lit f GDPR; for the "right to object" see point 4) in deploying our Website and its content rapidly and effectively, contributing to customer satisfaction and business performance.

9. Social media and third-party platform presences; transfer mechanism re international transfers

For the purpose of promoting our business activity and our service offer, we maintain presences in various social networks and similar platforms. The processing of your data in this context is based on our legitimate interest (Art 6 para 1 lit f GDPR; for the "right to object", see point 4) in expanding our reach as well as providing additional information and means of communication to users of social networks and similar platforms. In order to reach said purposes at the best possible rate, we may utilise functions provided by the respective service provider to measure our reach in detail (access statistics, identification of returning users, etc.).

In the course of accessing any of the online presences outlined subsequently, we process the general information being evident due to your profile in the respective network/platform as well as additional continuance, contact or content data, as far as you provide us with such data by interacting with our online presence and its contents. We do not store those data separately outside of the respective social network.

Since we jointly decide with the relevant service provider (respectively entity expressly outlined as controller) upon purposes and means of data processing in the course of a respective online presence, we are to be considered joint controllers in the sense of Art 26 GDPR. The provider of each social network respectively platform mentioned shall act as the primary point of contact with regard to all general and technical questions in respect of our online presences; this also applies to fulfilling rights of the data subjects in the sense of point 4. However, in case of requests concerning the specific operation of our online presences, your interactions with them or information published/collected via such channels, we shall be the primary point of contact; point 4 as well as other stipulations in this Data Protection Declaration apply correspondingly.

Some of the subsequent service providers are respectively their server landscape is located outside of the EU/EEA or they use processors to render their services to which this applies. Please be aware that we have no influence if or to which extent such transfers take place when using the respective network. You can find the relevant information on how each service provider handles third-country transfers (which might include data of you provided in the course of interacting with our social media presences) in the relevant data protection information of such service provider (cf. the respective links under each subsequent subsection). Mostly, those service providers utilise a certification according to the "EU-US Data Privacy Framework" pursuant to the respective adequacy decision of the EU Commission in the sense of Art 45 GDPR or standard data protection clauses in the sense of Art 46 para 2 lit c GDPR adopted by the European Commission in order to justify their transfers.

You can review the certifications relating to the "EU-US Data Privacy Framework" under <https://www.dataprivacyframework.gov/list>.

The most relevant group companies of the respective network providers include:

- Meta Platforms, Inc. (re "Facebook" and "Instagram");

- LinkedIn Corporation (re "LinkedIn");
- X Corp. (re "X");
- Google LLC (re "YouTube").

9.1 Facebook

Controller of the social network "Facebook" for the EEA region is Meta Platforms Ireland Limited [Dublin, Ireland] ("Meta Ireland"). In respect of the operation of our Facebook fan page "Monetec" (<https://www.facebook.com/people/Monetec/61558480245044/>), we are joint controllers in the sense of Art 26 GDPR with Meta Ireland.

Please note that we have no influence on the programming and design of the social network; thus, we can only use the options provided by Facebook in order to personalise and maintain our Facebook fan page. Hence, please carefully review the terms which the service provider prescribes for the use of the social network (<https://www.facebook.com/terms>) as well as the separate data protection declaration (<https://www.facebook.com/policy.php>) and consider the settings options in your Facebook account. In regards to any information provided by us via mechanisms made available by Facebook (posts, shares, etc.), we are naturally fully responsible.

9.2 Instagram

The social network "Instagram" is operated by Instagram Inc. [CA, US], which is part of the Meta group. Controller from a data protection point of view with regard to the EEA region is Meta Ireland (cf. point 9.1). In respect of the operation of our Instagram account "monetec.official" (<https://www.instagram.com/monetec.official/>), we are joint controllers in the sense of Art 26 GDPR with Meta Ireland.

Please note that we have no influence on the programming and design of the social network; thus, we can only use the options provided by Instagram in order to personalise and maintain our Instagram account. Hence, please carefully review the terms which the service provider prescribes for the use of the social network (<https://help.instagram.com/581066165581870>) as well as the separate data protection declaration (<https://help.instagram.com/519522125107875>) and consider the settings options in your Instagram account. In regards to any information provided by us via mechanisms made available by Instagram (postings, stories, etc.), we are naturally fully responsible.

9.3 LinkedIn

The social network "LinkedIn" is operated and data processing is controlled in the EEA area by LinkedIn Ireland Unlimited Company [Dublin, Ireland] ("LinkedIn Ireland"). In respect of the operation of our LinkedIn account "Monetec" (<https://www.linkedin.com/company/monetec>), we are joint controllers in the sense of Art 26 GDPR with LinkedIn Ireland.

Please note that we have no influence on the programming and design of the social network; thus, we can only use the options provided by LinkedIn in order to personalise and maintain our LinkedIn account. Hence, please carefully review the terms which the service provider prescribes for the use of the social network (https://www.linkedin.com/legal/user-agreement?l=en\_EN) as well as the separate data protection declaration (<https://www.linkedin.com/legal/privacy-policy>) and consider the settings options in your LinkedIn account. In regards to any information provided by us via mechanisms made available by LinkedIn (postings, chats, etc.), we are naturally fully responsible.
